Grey Alien Games and Suricate Software launch Jewel Match Atlantis Solitaire 3 – Collector's Edition on Steam

Bridport, UK. December 20th, 2021.

Jewel Match Atlantis Solitaire 3 - Collector's Edition by Suricate Software is coming to Steam for PC. UK-based Grey Alien Games will publish the game on behalf of Suricate Software, a European game developer behind numerous classic casual titles. This follows a similar agreement to bring Suricate's other Jewel Match Solitaire titles to Steam.

The new game features over 800 levels and 10 beautiful underwater scenes to build, with 18 additional Solitaire variants such as Sir Tommy and Double Wasp. Players will also enjoy 120 bonus Mahjong levels.

Jake Birkett, owner of Grey Alien Games said: "We are delighted to offer Jewel Match Atlantis Solitaire to card game fans on Steam. It's a huge game with beautiful artwork, we think players will love it."

Grey Alien Games has several of its own titles on Steam, including Regency Solitaire and solitaire-driven RPG, Shadowhand.

Jewel Match Atlantis Solitaire 3 - Collector's Edition launches today, 20 December 2021.
